

Community Emergency Economic Assistance Fund

The Milwaukee Jewish Federation and Jewish Family Services are pleased to announce the creation of a new fund to assist individuals and families in the Jewish community facing financial emergencies during this time of economic downturn. Created with generous gifts from the Helen Bader Foundation and the Daniel M. Soref Charitable Trust, the Community Emergency Economic Assistance Fund (CEEAF) will be administered by Jewish Family Services.

Dollars from the CEEAF will be used to meet the following needs:

Shelter

Utilities

Medications

Food

Transportation

Clothing

Jewish Family Services has developed a formal application process. To apply for funds, or to learn more, please call Beth Shapiro, Intake Coordinator at Jewish Family Services, at (414) 390-5800 or email bshapiro@jfsmilw.org.

MILWAUKEE
JEWISH FEDERATION

