REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

Milwaukee Jewish Federation Task Forces and Committees

Each year, dedicated community volunteers devote their time and talents to a variety of task forces and committees to enable the Milwaukee Jewish Federation to achieve the strategic goals that guide the organization's activities and direction. The achievement of these goals enables a successful approach to supporting our Jewish family in Israel, in our national and international communities and here at home.

A M E S S A G E

from Your President and Executive Vice President

We are very pleased to present
2009-2010: Report to the Community.

The longstanding mission of our Federation is to provide funding, staffing and support for vital human needs, educational, social and community-building services locally, nationally and internationally in Israel and around the world. This year we take special pride in the completion and approval of our Community Covenant, or Brit Kehillat: an agreement between Federation and our partner agencies. This document provides a clear description of the responsibilities and obligations we each assume as we work together to achieve our mutual goals. By committing to the shared ideals reflected in this Covenant and collaborating in our efforts, we can ensure that succeeding generations will enjoy the fruits of our communal undertaking.

This past year saw other significant signs of progress. We completed a strong Annual Campaign, exceeding last year's results. The Jewish Community Foundation created many new donor advised funds, and our investment return improved significantly. We welcomed the Jewish Community Relations Council as a core function of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation. We gathered nearly 800 strong to attend the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit at the Milwaukee Public Museum. Our Women's Division launched a strategic planning process as we vision for the future. Our agencies brought our community to life with education, celebration and a wide array of programs and services. A key overseas partner, the Jewish Agency for Israel (JAFI), completed a historic reframing of its mission and purpose to focus on ensuring a strong, shared future for Israel and the Jews of the Diaspora.

Lingering effects of the economic downturn forced difficult decisions, as we continued to refine our scope of operations, identify economies and embrace collaboration. And, in May, 2010, we said a sad good-bye to one of our own, long-time Federation Executive and the architect of our Jewish community, Melvin S. Zaret, who left behind an extraordinary legacy of commitment to Jewish values.

We ask you now to reaffirm your commitment to a community of deep compassion, dedication, courage and resilience. And if you're not now part of our community, we extend a warm welcome for you to join us as we meet the challenges before us and continue to celebrate our lives, our history, our families, our vibrant community, our festivals and our faith.

Respectfully,

Jerry Benjamin, President

Richard H. Meyer,
Executive Vice President

Milwaukee Jewish Federation: Building Community and Developing Financial Resources.

In 2009-2010, as we recovered from earlier financial challenges, we strengthened community by gathering, learning, teaching and celebrating together. We helped people in need, upheld our Jewish values, and honored our bonds with Israel.

We completed a $6.9 million Annual Campaign. The Jewish Community Foundation provided more than $1 million for community allocations, and Foundation assets were up 16%. A promising new corporate sponsorship initiative was developed. We presented films, lectures, plays and musical performances. We traveled to Israel and welcomed Israeli visitors to Milwaukee. We gathered in celebration, in support and in remembrance. And we signed Jewish Milwaukee's first-ever Community Covenant, recognizing that the ties that bind us together are much stronger than any differences that divide us.

The Local Partner Agencies of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation: Building Community by Providing Programs and Services. The 10 local partner agencies of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation provide a wide array of essential educational, social welfare, care-giving, family activity and other services that ensure a strong and healthy Jewish Milwaukee community. Federation supports these agencies through local allocations, through funding from the Jewish Community Foundation and through the provision of infrastructure assistance.

Community Allocations

Like Federations across North America, in 2009 – 2010, the Milwaukee Jewish Federation worked to recover from earlier financial challenges. We are learning to live with less and to reinvent our community at a level commensurate with our resources. Community allocations for 2010-2011 reflect this cost-effective approach to programs, services and activities.

We are grateful to the MJF Executive Committee and the Officers and Board of Directors for the time, talent and energy they devoted to meeting the continuing challenges of community allocations in this time of tentative recovery.

The Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center (JCC) established the Jewish Community Garden on June 16, 2010. A wide cross-section of the Milwaukee Jewish community participated in this project, which will teach children about stewardship of the earth and provide fresh produce for the Jewish Community Pantry. Shown here (l-r): Jody Hirsh, JCC Judaic Director; Cathy Goldman, Garden Committee; Jacqueline Goldman; Judy Miller, MJDS Head of School and Max Samson, Congregation Shir Hadash.

The Women's Division of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation: Building Community through the Power of Women. The Women's Division continued to set an example of Jewish communal life with high energy and deep commitment. The 2010 Women's Campaign achieved a total of nearly $2 million. We drew special strength from our Lion of Judah and Pomegranate donors. Political and Jewish Awareness educated women from all sectors of our community. An amazing annual meeting featured the combined achievements of the Women's Division and the Jewish Women's Endowment Fund.

The 2009-2010 Lion of Judah and Pomegranate event, made possible by a generous gift from Nita Soref, was an elegant "high tea." The program featured "The Faces of Aliyah," and included remarks by Ethiopian artist Assia Avera (shown here).

The theme of the April 2010 Annual Meeting of the Women's Division was 'Extraordinary Times Call for Extraordinary Women.' The focus was on the power of women, as demonstrated by the Women's Campaign and the Jewish Women's Endowment Fund. Shown here (left to right) are Event Co-Chairs Ruth Wallace and Susan Pittelman; 2010 Women's Campaign Chair Andrea Schneider (note non-perishable food items stacked in front of the podium for later donation to the Jewish Community Pantry); and outgoing WD President Idy Goodman with incoming President Susan Angel Miller.

Jill Plavnick received the 2010 Ann Agulnick Young Leadership Award at the Women's Division Annual Meeting.

Building Community through Planned Giving and Endowment Development

*Nita Soref, 2010 JCF Legacy
Leadership Award Recipient*

The Jewish Community Foundation partners with donors to help them plan for the future and fulfill their philanthropic goals through planned giving. The efforts of its professional staff and volunteer leadership have positioned the Jewish Community Foundation to continue to provide exemplary service to donors and beneficiary agencies. Through the years, the Jewish Community Foundation has worked with many families and their advisors to create gifts that have met estate and tax planning challenges while providing significant resources for the future well-being of the community.

This year, the Jewish Community Foundation has worked with donors to create many new donor advised funds and endowment funds. At the same time, more than $13 million have been distributed in this year alone from funds held at the Foundation, as donor advised fund holders continue to recommend gifts to support a wide array of programs and services that serve the local and global Jewish communities.

In Memoriam Melvin S. Zaret

1918-2010

For more than 50 years, Melvin S. Zaret was no less than the heart and soul of the Milwaukee Jewish community. In terms of leadership, vision, passion and commitment to Jewish federation work, Mel was quite simply in a class by himself. Motivated by a single-minded dedication to human welfare and the relief of human suffering, Mel served as executive of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation and its predecessor organization from 1955 through 1984. Following the end of his tenure, he continued to share his wisdom generously with all of us. We will never forget this towering figure of Jewish communal life. May Mel Zaret's memory and legacy be for a blessing to his family and to our Jewish community. (Mel is shown at left with his beloved wife Eva, signing his story for the Jewish Community Foundation's Book of Life.)

Community M I S S I O N Statement

Through the development of community-wide financial support, planning and allocations, the mission of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation is to ensure the continuity of the Jewish people, to enhance the quality of Jewish life, and to build a strong and unified Jewish community in Milwaukee, in Israel and throughout the world.

In fulfilling its mission, the Federation is committed to the principles of Klal Yisrael (the collective unity of the Jewish people), tzedakah (the obligation to care for one another), and tikkun olam (improving the society in which we live).

2009-2010: Report to the Community focuses on the key concept of building Jewish community. Over this past year, we have devoted time and energy to the development of a Community Covenant, a document designed to bring us together by explicitly stating the commitments that Federation and our local partner agencies have made to one another. These promises bind us together and help us to build and strengthen our community.

Throughout this report, you will find examples of how your support through the Milwaukee Jewish Federation and the Jewish Community Foundation has added power and vibrancy to our community. Your commitment, volunteerism and financial contributions are making it possible, even in times of uncertainty, to maintain vital programs and services and continue our tradition of responsiveness to the needs of the worldwide Jewish community.
