

I AM HERE

I am a social work student at UWM, a youth group advisor at Congregation Shalom, a native of the Twin Cities and an outreach intern at Hillel Milwaukee, which is funded by the Milwaukee Jewish Federation. As an intern, I connect with other Jewish students so they have a Jewish friend on campus. College is the first time students are really independent, and they make decisions that will affect the rest of their lives. Hillel Milwaukee helps make sure that Judaism plays a part.
