

“You will know that a real recovery is beginning as 25-year-olds pack up their stuff, move out of their parents’ basement and rent their own place.”

- Austan Goolsbee, Economist, Robert P. Gwinn Professor of Economics at the University of Chicago’s Booth School of Business and Former Chairman of the President’s Council of Economic Advisers

Making Headlines:

“Bucks co-owner Marc Lasry, power-networking attract full house to Jewish Federation forum. Lasry was the featured guest, sharing insights into his investment business Avenue Capital and his ownership of the Bucks.”

- Marc Lasry, co-founder and CEO of Avenue Capital Group and the co-owner of the NBA’s Milwaukee Bucks

“If I had a chance to talk to the president and members of Congress, I’d tell them one thing. I’d say, ‘For God’s sake, grow up.’”

“I’m not an eat your spinach person. But I am a person who believes our potential is enormous compared to our realization.”

- Former U.S. Treasury Secretary Paul O’Neill

“The goal should be to have 500 to 1,000 start-up (businesses) in the area and then support them. You need to bring some of the craziness (of Silicon Valley) to Milwaukee.”

- Vivek Wadhwa, Futurist and Research Leader at Singularity University, Professor: Duke University Pratt School of Engineering, Carnegie Mellon University’s School of Engineering, Stanford Law School

“You cannot rely on Washington to do it for you. You have the ability to make a difference in your community and make Milwaukee more competitive.”

- Karen Mills is a former Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration. She is a Senior Fellow at the Harvard Business School focusing on U.S. competitiveness, innovation and entrepreneurship.
