Building Jewish identity

Annual Campaign funds touch Jewish schools, agencies, synagogues, and programs that connect our children to Jewish life and Jewish values. This investment in our children, from birth through college, will help our Jewish community stay vibrant for years to come.

1,800
children and teens at Jewish day and overnight camps

10,000
free Shabbat dinners for college students

500
teens in Jewish youth groups

$56,000
to send students to Jewish camp in Tashkent, Uzbekistan

1,037
children in Jewish preschools and day schools (PK-8)

12,000
visitors to Jewish Museum Milwaukee

American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Bader Hillel Academy, BBYO-Wisconsin Region, Coalition for Jewish Learning, Harry & Rose Samson Family Jewish Community Center, Hillel Foundation in Madison, Hillel Milwaukee, Israel Center, Jewish Agency for Israel, Jewish Beginnings Lubavitch Preschool, Jewish Museum Milwaukee, Milwaukee Jewish Day School, Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center, Wisconsin Jewish Chronicle, and Yeshiva Elementary School are the major Annual Campaign-funded agencies and programs that build Jewish identity.
