Lastly, here is a special prayer I shared at our worship service on Sunday at Adoration Lutheran Church in Greenfield:

"Eternal God, amid the turmoil and conflict of the world, your love is steadfast and your strength never fails. We pray for the people of Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh that was heinously attacked today, and we pray for all those who are affected by this hate crime. We especially pray for the Jewish community in America and throughout the world, and we stand together against anti-Semitism and against violence coming from any corner of society. O God, turn our eyes to your mercy in this time of great loss and mourning. Shine your Light on those whose only companion is darkness right now, and grant us your courage and hope. All these things we ask in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord — Amen."

Shalom, Salaam, Pacem, Peace...
